

Installer Level 1 Job Description

Reports to: Job Supervisor/Lead Installer

Job Summary:

The Level 1 installer will be required to perform basic installation work activities. The Level 1 installer will be coached and mentored around these activities. The Installer will also acquire an understand of Installation and Quality Standards contained in GR-1275 and local IP72202 Practices

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assemble, Erect, mount and align Common Central Office System hardware
- Run and secure cable and perform basic wiring functions. This shall include, copper, light guide and coaxial cabling.
- Butt, strip, fan, form and connect cabling for termination to various pieces of telephony hardware
- Prepare and connect coaxial and light guide type cabling
- Mount and stencil a wide variety of telecommunication units, terminal blocks, and interconnect panels.
- Perform basic power operations such as mounting relay rack fuse panels and perform the termination of power feeders. This also includes the running and termination of local fuse leads from fuse panels to various units within a relay rack bay.
- During removal operations perform cable verification and cable mining operations.
- Meet Network Equipment Installation/Quality Standards as prescribed in the GR-1275 and local IP72202 practices.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Level 1 installer is considered an entry level position
- Should possess a good mechanical aptitude
- Should possess a good knowledge of basic power tools
- Should have the ability to adapt to various work environments

Credentials and Experience:

- Entry Level position
- Posses a Basic Transmission Installation Certification Card